

Journalist Roundtable in Cyprus

Technology for Truth: Helping Whistleblowers Fight Corruption

Journalists, bloggers, investigative writers and researchers welcome

Tuesday February 11, 2020 - 9:00am - 10:30am

Venue: Union of Cyprus Journalists, Λεωφόρος ΠΙΚ 12, 2120 Nicosia, Cyprus

Secure digital dropboxes provide digitally safe ways for whistleblowers to report crime and serious wrongdoing. This Roundtable will present the EU-supported 'E.A.T' project to expand the creation of Secure digital dropboxes. These boxes provide digitally safe ways for whistleblowers to report crime and serious wrongdoing.

The speakers will also brief you on the EU Directive to protect whistleblowers, which came into force at the end of 2019 and must be transposed into all EU member states' national laws by 2021.

9:00 – 10:00 Roundtable Speakers

SPAIN: Bruno Galizzi: FIBGAR Project Coordinator of the EU-supported 'E.A.T. Expanding Anonymous Tipping' project

CYPRUS: Assoc. Prof Maria Krambia-Kapardis, Cyprus University of Technology

UK: Naomi Colvin, UK Program Director, Blueprint for Free Speech

USA/Greece: Andy Dabilis, Athens Correspondent and Emeritus Executive Editor, The National Herald (USA)

ITALY: Fabio Pietrosanti - GlobaLeaks Co-Founder (via live video)

Moderator: Dr Suelette Dreyfus, University of Melbourne and Blueprint for Free Speech

Questions and discussion are welcomed throughout

10:00 – 10:30 Coffee and refreshments

There is no cost for this event.

RSVP: <https://technology-for-truth.eventbrite.com>

info@blueprintforfreespeech.net

Co-funded by the Internal Security Fund
of the European Union

This event is hosted by an international consortium of civil society organisations and a project: Blueprint for Free Speech, Hermes Center for Transparency and Digital Human Rights, Fundacion Internacional Baltasar Garzon, and The Expanding Anonymous Tipping E.A.T Project. This event received funding support from European Union's Internal Security Fund – Police and The Open Society Initiative for Europe within The Open Society Foundations. The content represents the views of the participants only and is his/her sole responsibility. The European Commission does not accept any responsibility for use that may be made of the information it contains.